THE TERROIR

Mediterranean climate with cool nights & volcanic soils for structured, mineral-driven wines blend.

WINEMAKING:

Hand-harvested, co-fermented in "millefeuille" layers, then aged in clay/concrete/stainless.

TASTING NOTES:

Aroma: Black fruits (blackberry, plum), spices (black pepper, clove), earthy notes, and cocoa.

Palate: Silky yet firm tannins, vibrant acidity, medium-to-full body.

Finish: Long and persistent, with hints of licorice and ripe fruit.
